5. Co-Authorship
If the article was prepared jointly with other authors, the signature of this form warrants that he/she has been authorized by all co-authors to sign this agreement on their behalf, and agrees to inform his/her co-authors of the terms of this agreement.

6. Publication Fee
Please refer to the Instructions for Authors of IJIRE for whether the journal charges a publication fee and, if yes, how much the journal charges in publication.

7. Termination
This agreement can be terminated by the author or the Publisher upon two months’ notice where the other party has materially breached this agreement and failed to remedy such breach within a month of being given the terminating party’s notice requesting such breach to be remedied. No breach or violation of this agreement will cause this agreement or any license granted in it to terminate automatically or affect the definition of the Publisher. After the lapse of forty (40) years of the date of this agreement, this agreement can be terminated without cause by the author or the Publisher upon two years’ notice. The author and the Publisher may agree to terminate this agreement at any time.

8. Royalties
This agreement entitles the author to no royalties or other fees. To such extent as legally permissible, the author waives his or her right to collect royalties relative to the article in respect of any use of the article by the Publisher or its sublicense.

9. Miscellaneous
The Publisher will publish the article (or have it published) in the Journal, if the article’s external process is successfully completed and the Publisher or its sublicense has become obligated to have the article published. The Publisher may conform the article to a style of punctuation, spelling, capitalization and usage that it deems appropriate. The author acknowledges that the article may be published so that it will be publicly accessible and such access will be free of charge for the readers. The Publisher will be allowed to sublicense the rights that are licensed to it under this agreement. This agreement will be governed by the laws of India.

10. Scope of the Commercial License
The exclusive right and license granted under this agreement to the Publisher for commercial use is as follows:
A. to prepare, reproduce, manufacture, publish, distribute, exhibit, advertise, promote, license and sub-license printed and electronic copies of the article, through the Internet and other means of data transmission now known or later to be developed, the foregoings will include abstracts, bibliographic information, illustrations, pictures, indexes and subject headings and other proprietary materials contained in the article,
B. to exercise, license and sub-license others to exercise subsidiary and other rights in the article, including the right to photocopy, scan or reproduce copies thereof, to reproduce excerpts from the article in other works, and to reproduce copies of the article as part of compilations with other works, including collections of materials made for use in classes for instructional purposes, customized works, electronic databases, document delivery, and other information services, and publish, distribute, exhibit and license the same.

Where this agreement refers to a license granted to the Publisher in this agreement as exclusive, the publisher commits not only to refrain from granting such license to a third party but also to refrain from exercising the right that is the subject of such license otherwise than by performing this agreement.

The Publisher will be entitled to enforce in respect of third parties, to such extent as permitted by law, the rights licensed to it under this agreement.
